

BERT BERGNER

Sr. Principal R&D Engineer

Education:

- Graduation in electrical engineering in 1994

Career:

- Working at TE Connectivity since 1995
- worked in the development of industrial communication, network and connectivity products for more than 15 years
- joined the automotive business unit in 2013
- currently responsible for the development of new high speed connectivity products with focus to electrical signal transmission

Experiences:

- Chair of technical committee TC9 (requirements and test methods for automotive Ethernet channels & components) in the OPEN Alliance Special Interest Group